SUPT. BYRD TALKS OF BIG POLL TAX PAYING.

Superintendent Delighted Over Coffee County's Great Record On Paying Poll Tax This Year.

Supt. C. H. Byrd was here Friday and Saturday. He came over to pay off the teachers on the school of Coffee County, already in February. In regard to money, but on account of the fact that he believed that a man who pays his poll tax is a much better citizen than one who does not. Our big, jolly, good natured superintendent was all smiles over the work done in Coffee County and was especially tickled over the fact that no county of similar size had nearly approached the record made by Coffee.

When asked as to whether he had anything to say for publication about the remarkable showing of payment of poll tax, he said: "Just say to your readers that I am proud of Coffee County and her fine people; no county in Alabama of similar white population has ever outdistanced her in paying poll tax in the past and this year she shows up, as usual, ahead. It is gratifying to know that nearly $5000.00 has been paid in poll tax in Coffee County this year. Of this amount, about $2700.00 comes from the '1900, poll taxes paid for this year, and more than $2000.00 comes from the 470 odd persons who paid poll taxes for back years, amounting in all to about 1500 years for which these persons paid."

Supt. Byrd says that the public school of Coffee County are in better condition than they have ever been. He says that attendance, interest and work are all vastly improved, and that much improvement is going on in the way of new school buildings and additions, improvements and repairs on old buildings.

It is said that Wm. Garner, of Houston, and S. P. Ratner, of Bullock County, who have been spoken of in connection with the race for State Treasurer, will not run. This will leave the race to Commissioner of Agriculture, J. A. Wilkerson and Judge Jno. J. Parfily.

Mrs. L. N. Williams Dead.

Mrs. L. N. Williams died at Elba on Feb. 8th, after an illness that confined her to her bed for several weeks. She was 77 years old, and had lived a pure and useful life. Mrs. Williams was the mother of J. N., and J. T. Wesley, and Mesdames J. J. Jordan and F. M. Dean.

The burial services was at Ramah Church, conducted by Elder M. V. Gibson.

Whatever may be said of political declarations none have been issued that go more to the point than that of Col. Charles Henderson in withdrawing from the race for governor. Whatever any one may have thought in the past about his attitude it is certainly plain now that he stands for Alabama's best and highest interests and against letting her be despoiled by people from without the State. Col. Henderson is yet a young man. He has yet time to serve his state as governor. This section knows him and holds him in such esteem that had he run through it would have given him a very heavy vote. We regret his coming out of the race, but feel sure a man of good judgement did what was best under the circumstances.

From all over the cotton belt comes reports an enormous increase in the sales of fertilizers. This is pretty good indication of the increase that may be expected in the cotton crop.

LaGrippe pains that pervade the entire system, LaGrippe cough that rack and strain, are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar. It is mildly laxative, safe and certain in results. Sold by City Drug Co.

Mr. Stewart is one of the best known young men on the county, has a host of friends in all sections, is a clean good "university" and is in this race to win. He is clever, courteous and well qualified to fill the position he seeks, and will doubtless make a good showing when the votes are counted.

Prof. Duncan, of Auburn is traveling over the state to organize corn clubs among the boys. The object is to increase the interest in corn culture and to this end prizes are offered to boys for the best yields of corn from an acre in each county or best. By this means demonstration acres are cultivated in various sections of each county, and the proper cultivation.

There are many indications that the farmers of Coffee intend to better work this year than ever before. Much land has been brought in fine condition for planting, and not all of it is cotton land. A good deal of food crops will receive a good share of attention, as most farmers have learned to know that this pays.

Miss Debater Blocker left the first of this week for Atlanta, Louisville and points east investigating the latest styles in millinery and buy her spring stock. She expects to buy more largely than usual as her increasing sales demands a larger stock, and will, as usual, get the very latest styles for her patrons. Miss Blocker has been buying millinery for the best trade of Elba for a number of years, and the steady increase in her sales is proof sufficient of the fact that she knows what is wanted by the ladies of Coffee County.

The statement of The First National Bank of Elba published in this issue, shows a steady increase in the business of that popular institution, and also speaks well for the business interest of Elba. The liberal business policy of The First National Bank has caused the business of the bank to grow with the town, and has helped in no small measure to make Elba the splendid little city that it is.

Birmingham and Montgomery papers have noted the fact that Hon. Kyle B. Price, of Elba, is a candidate for railroad commissioner. Mr. Price is one Elba's best citizens, takes a leading part in public affairs and, no doubt, every citizen of the county would be pleased to see him elected commissioner.

Occasionally some citizen of Elba grows rich and moves. It is a bigger town, but there is always two good men to move in and fill the vacancy. If these movers would only wait a short while Elba would grow big enough to hold them.

MALLORY VS. O'NEAL.

Or O'Neal vs. Mallory, which ever way suits you, that is what the gubernatorial campaign in Alabama has narrowed down to. All the other "used-to-be" candidates have quit the drive, and we are to have a clean cut, red-hot race between these two men.

Mallory was a straight out amendment man and did what he could for it. O'Neal was a leader of the forces against the amendment and made a number of speeches in opposition to it.

Of the two men it can be truthfully said that they are both able and honorable. You will doubtless hear much of both during the next two months, and find out what color of dog they like best, the cut of their panjamas, and whether they went to Sunday School with bright and smiling faces or "shoot craps behind the barn."

More people are taking Foley's Kidney Remedy every year. It is considered the most effective remedy for all kidney and bladder troubles that medical science can devise. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities, builds up the system, and restores lost vitality. Sold by City Drug Co.

The Clipper still has room for a few more announcements. Come right on gentlemen, if you want "pie" ask for it, that is the only way you can ever hope to get it.

The modest man may be a most admirable citizen, but he won't fill many offices in Alabama, or elsewhere in this land of the free and heaven of the office seeker.

Hon. Chas. Henderson has withdrawn from the race for governor.

The race for governor will probably narrow down to O'Neal and Mallory before many weeks.

It took $250 to get in the democratic primary for governor of Alabama, and will cost several times that amount to be in at the close.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE MEETING ON SATURDAY.

Adopted Plans For Primaries in March and April, With Plurality Nominations for Officers.

Saturday at noon the Democratic Executive Committee of Coffee County met in the court room at Elba, with Hon. J. A. Carnley, Chairman, presiding, and secretary Nolin in the chair.

The committee elected Messrs John M. Garrett and Kyle B. Price to act as assistant secretaries. All of the committee was present, except the committeemen from beats 9 and 20, where vacancies existed; the vacancies were filled by the election of G. W. Stevens in beat 9 and A. M. Farris in beat 20. The vacancy in the place of vice-chairman was filled by the election of J. S. Donaldson, of beat 1.

The committee voted to nominate by majority vote, and to have primaries on March 19 and April 23. A committee to draw up plan, composed of O. C. Doster,

W. G. Jones, B. D. Donaldson, B. Moore and M. S. Carmichael was appointed to draw resolution calling primaries.

The committee passed ringing resolutions endorsing Hon. K. B. Price for railroad commissioner, and urging that the people of Alabama select him on account of his fitness and ability.

While the committee to draw resolutions was out the committee was addressed by K. B. Price, K. W. Kelsae, and T. J. Carlisle.

Chairman Doster submitted report of his committee on primary resolutions, which were adopted. The committee and on lookers were invited to dinner at the two hotels by Judge Rowe and the committee adjourned.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the resolutions calling primaries.

Mr. McGilvray Announces.

In this issue of The Clipper appears the announcement of Hon. W. A. McGilvray, of Beat 17, for Circuit Clerk. He is one of the early citizens of East Coffee, casting his lot at Enterprise when that town was a village. He is public spirited, has helped in the growth of that section, and is a fine fellow. He has always taken an active interest in public matters, but this is the first time he ever ran for office.

Mr. McGilvray has followed clerical pursuits all his life and is splendidly equipped for the position. He is popular and starts in the race with good support and will be a formidable candidate.

For Lieutenant-Governor:—E. Perry Thomas, Clayton.

Walter D. Seed, Tuscaloosa.

HENDERSON OUT OF GOVERNOR RACE.

Pike County Comes Out In Very Strong Statement, Which Gives Reasons For Action.

Col. Charles Henderson of Pike County, a popular and formidable candidate for Governor, the first of last week announced his withdrawal from the race. His statement was as follows:

The statement as given to The Advertiser Tuesday morning is as follows: "I am not a candidate for governor. When I made the announcement of my candidacy, I was assured of the neutral attitude of certain powerful influences and was led to believe that the conservative principles for which I stood would be accepted by a majority of the people of Alabama."

"In the recent amendment contest, I stood against the adoption of the proposed constitutional amendment because I believed its adoption would have infringed on certain principles of free government. We contended in that campaign that the question of saloons or no saloons did not enter into that contest. Subsequent developments, however, have clearly shown me that the allied interests that financed the amendment campaign are demanding compensation for the part they took and the contributions made, and are now making a fight for control of the executive and legislative branches of the state government."

"This is contrary to the position I took and the promises we made to the people."

"With the changed conditions, I am of the opinion that in the short time between now and the primary, I could not be successful in making my position clear to the people of the state; and, having come to this conclusion, it is due my friends that I advise them of my decision."

Charles Henderson.

It will be seen from the above that Col. Henderson feels that an attempt is being made by certain interests to reap profits and benefits from what took place last fall. It will be remembered that Col. Henderson is and has been a strong prohibitionist, as well as a believer in the railroads being made to treat the people fairly. He said last fall in the amendment campaign that he favored prohibition, and now he calls a halt when it appears that efforts are being made to turn the State over to interests which are hostile to the welfare of the people and State.

Col. Henderson was president of the famous anti-amendment conference which stated the ball rolling to defeat the late amendment. He did perhaps as much as any one to bring about the defeat of the amendment, for he had a reputation for honor and patriotism that carried with it weight and influence.

It is said that Col. Henderson and many of his supporters will support Col. Mallory for Governor.
